

CTCN Community Advisory Board

(Pastor Stan Archie)

CTCN has established a community advisory board to keep us abreast to how we are viewed from the communities perspective. The CAB has recently been formed to advise the Board and Committees on how the programming is received, and how it can be more effective. They also give opinions on their perspective of how the board is carrying out the mission of the company.